IMPORTANT

Your purchase gives you permission to use this WitchSync digital calendar product under the terms of this licence.

Your purchase does not transfer ownership of WitchSync copyright or other intellectual property rights to you.

By purchasing, downloading, importing or using the product, you acknowledge that your use of the product is subject to this licence.

1. YOUR PERSONAL USE LICENCE

Your purchase grants the individual purchaser a non-exclusive, non-transferable licence for their own personal, non-commercial use.

You may:

- Use the calendars across your own phones, tablets, computers and other personal devices.
- Keep reasonable backup copies for your own personal use, including backups stored in your own private cloud storage.

- Edit, rename, combine, convert or adapt events for your own private personal use.
- Export a personalised version for continued use by you, provided it is not shared, distributed or used commercially.

This licence is granted to the individual purchaser only. Purchasing one copy does not grant a licence for use by multiple people, organisations, groups, communities or businesses.

2. RESTRICTIONS

You may not, whether free of charge or for payment:

- Resell, redistribute, share, gift, sublicense, transfer or otherwise provide the original files to another person.
- Upload or import the files into a shared, public, organisational, workplace, team, membership, group or community calendar where they can be accessed or used by other people.
- Publish or make the files available to other people through a website, publicly accessible or shared cloud folder, file-sharing service, marketplace, social-media group, messaging group or other distribution method.
- Copy or extract substantial parts of WitchSync's original wording, practices, prompts, reflections, guides, correspondences, explanations or compiled calendar content for redistribution.

- Remove, alter or obscure WitchSync copyright, licence, product-identification or provenance information for the purpose of redistribution.
- Claim or imply that WitchSync content is your own original work.
- Sell or distribute a converted, edited, translated or otherwise modified version of WitchSync content on the basis that the modification makes it a new product.

4. SHARING AND REVIEWS

You may share occasional screenshots or short excerpts from WitchSync for the purpose of genuine personal commentary, recommendation or review, provided that:

Where factual or traditional material is included, this licence applies to WitchSync's original expression, selection, arrangement and presentation of that material where protected by law.

6. THIRD-PARTY CALENDAR SERVICES

WitchSync products are designed to be used with compatible third-party calendar applications and services.

Importing WitchSync files into services such as Google Calendar, Microsoft Outlook, Apple Calendar or another compatible calendar service does not transfer ownership of WitchSync content to that service and does not give you permission to redistribute the files or their contents.

Your use of any third-party calendar service is also subject to that provider's own terms, features, compatibility requirements and limitations.

WitchSync is not affiliated with, endorsed by or sponsored by Google, Microsoft, Apple or any other third-party calendar provider unless expressly stated otherwise.

- Calendar platforms.
- Devices.
- Operating systems.
- Software versions.
- User settings.

WitchSync cannot guarantee that every calendar application or software version will display imported content identically.

Customers are encouraged to import WitchSync into a separate calendar within their chosen calendar application so that WitchSync events can be easily shown, hidden, customised or removed.

8. INFORMATIONAL, SPIRITUAL AND REFLECTIVE CONTENT

WitchSync calendars are provided for informational, cultural, spiritual, reflective and personal-use purposes.

Astronomical timings and viewing information have been prepared for the stated edition and geographical context.

Actual visibility of astronomical events can depend on factors including:

- Weather.
- Cloud cover.

- Local horizon.
- Light pollution.
- Geographic location.
- Atmospheric conditions.
- Changes in predicted astronomical circumstances.

Astrological, magical, spiritual, herbal, crystal and other correspondences are presented as cultural, traditional, symbolic or reflective material.

They are not intended to constitute medical, psychological, legal, financial or other professional advice.

References to herbs, plants, crystals, rituals or other practices are not instructions to ingest, consume or medically use any substance.

You remain responsible for deciding whether any suggested activity is appropriate and safe for your own circumstances.

9. COPYRIGHT AND UNAUTHORISED USE

Unauthorised copying, redistribution, publication, resale or commercial reuse of protected WitchSync material may infringe copyright and may also breach the terms of this licence.

WitchSync reserves all rights not expressly granted under this licence.

Nothing in this licence is intended to remove, restrict or exclude any statutory consumer rights, copyright exceptions or other legal rights that cannot lawfully be excluded or restricted.

10. LICENCE TERMINATION

This licence remains in effect unless it is terminated as a result of a material breach of its terms.

If you materially breach this licence, your permission to use WitchSync material under this licence may end.

Where the licence has ended because of a breach, you must stop using, sharing or distributing WitchSync copyright material and delete copies that you are not otherwise legally entitled to retain.

Termination of this licence does not affect any rights or remedies that may already have arisen as a result of unauthorised use.
